ORDER LIMITING RELEASE OF JUROR INFORMATION

THIS MATTER is before the Court on its own motion as a result of a request for jury questionnaires in the above-styled case by the Tampa Bay Times.

It is therefore,

ORDERED:

1. The Clerk of this Court shall not release to any persons the names, addresses, or any other identifying information concerning potential or seated jurors in the above-styled case until after the conclusion of the trial.
2. The Clerk of this Court shall not release to any persons the jury questionnaires completed by any potential or seated jurors in the above-styled case until after the conclusion of the trial.
3. Fourteen days after the conclusion of the trial in the above-styled case, the Clerk of this Court may release completed jury questionnaires upon any request deemed proper by the Clerk and in accordance with Florida law. However, before providing the requested jury questionnaire(s), the Clerk shall redact any and all Dates of Birth, Driver License Numbers, Florida ID Card Numbers, and Social Security Numbers provided in the jury questionnaire(s).

4. No provision of this order shall preclude the Clerk from redacting or refusing to disseminate any other information deemed protected from disclosure pursuant to Florida law.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at New Port Richey, Pasco County, Florida, this 3rd day of Nov., 2017. A true and correct copy of the forgoing was furnished to the parties below.

Mary M. Handsel, Circuit Judge

cc: Clerk of Court
